69TH NSAUA ANNUAL MEETING

OCTOBER 12-14
WELCOME

Thank you to all Section members, industry partners and other attendees for coming to Buffalo. We are privileged to welcome you to the Section’s 68th Annual Meeting.

We invite you to enjoy our intimate setting that allows close interaction with urology leaders from both the U.S. and Canada. Our program offers 17.25 hours of scientific exchange – emphasizing practical approaches for managing clinical problems. As stated in our meeting objectives, we expect the featured talks, panel discussions and debates to directly help you in your practice – to be aware of recent developments in multiple topic areas, to improve your evaluations and assessments of patients, to be aware of trends – all to equate to an excellent educational experience. Your questions and active participation in the sessions are strongly encouraged.

Join us for Thursday evening’s Exhibit Hall Reception – have a drink, mingle with colleagues and thank our industry partners for their support. Afterward, our Fun Night event at RiverWorks will feature a casual evening of food, entertainment and friendly competition in backyard games including corn hole, pickleball, horseshoes, ladder ball and more. Your meeting registration also includes Friday’s banquet event – enjoy dinner with friends and colleagues and be amazed by the fascinating magic of local illusionist Todd Nelson. You won’t want to miss this show. Buffalo has undergone a remarkable transformation in recent years – a redeveloped waterfront, a burgeoning craft beer scene, revitalization of parks, unique architecture and arts – consider one of our tour options and enjoy your stay.

Thank you again for being here. Please say hello and share your ideas and questions. We look forward to each of you making this a productive and enjoyable meeting.

Ronald P. Kaufman, Jr, MD
President

The Northeastern Section of the American Urological Association Foundation (NS-AUA) established its Research and Education Fund in 1995 to assure continuing excellence in research and educational activity within the Section.

The Research Scholarship Program was established in 1998 to provide financial scholarships to support research projects. The Section endeavors to fund up to two research awards annually to young investigators in basic or clinical urology research, to acquiring, developing or improving knowledge and skills in a specific aspect of the specialty. The Section is proud to have awarded 28 research grants since the program’s inception. Recipients have gone on to leadership roles both at the Section level and within the AUA.

Beginning in 2002, the Section began offering stipend support to its 15 Urology Programs to help offset costs associated with sending residents/fellows to the Annual Meeting. The Research and Education Fund has also enabled the Section to provide special programming and events specifically tailored for urology residents, including a breakfast program and the annual Prize Essay Contest.

Members are encouraged to contribute to sustain these important programs. If you wish to learn more or to make a donation, please contact the Northeastern Section at 410-689-3950 or NSAUA@AUAnet.org. All R&E contributions support the Section’s 501(c)(3) Foundation, Tax ID #06-1705712.

PUBLICATION OF 2016 ABSTRACTS

The Section is pleased to announce that all accepted abstracts of the 2016 annual meeting have been published in the September online issue of the Canadian Urological Association Journal (CUAJ).

The Canadian Urological Association Journal (CUAJ) is owned and officially endorsed by the Canadian Urological Association. CUAJ is a bi-monthly publication and is searchable on PubMed, with full-text articles on PubMed Central and on the newly created CUAJ website (www.cuaj.ca). CUAJ is also covered in the Science Citation Index Expanded (also known as SciSearch) and the Journal Citation Reports/Science Edition provided by Thomson Reuters.

Excerpt from the Waterways Chapter:

“No history of the Northeastern Section is complete without a short biography of this indefatigable urologist.

Dr. George E. Slotkin (1890-1971) was born in New York City but soon moved with his parents to Buffalo, NY, where he spent his professional career. We acknowledge him today as a founder, the first benefactor, and the first historian of the NS, but there is more to his story.

If one were to hold up a mirror to the changing face of urology in the first half of the 20th century, it would be well reflected with an image of George E. Slotkin. A graduate of the University of Buffalo Medical School, Dr. Slotkin did postgraduate work at the New York City Post Graduate Hospital, the University of Vienna, and the University of Budapest. In 1918, he became a clinical professor of urology at the University of Buffalo. During the late 1940s, his clinical interest was tuberculosis of the urinary tract, which he treated with chlamagoric acid. Even though results of his work in this area remain inconclusive, other fruits of his career do not. Friends and colleagues of his time were fond of saying, ‘George Slotkin has three loves: urology, his wife Helene, and his Rolls Royce...not necessarily in that order!’ His early work, ‘Nephroptosis, a resurrected disease,’ was published in The Urologic and Cutaneous Review in 1938. His later work with E.A. Mercer, ‘Case of epispadias with a double urethra,’ was published in The Journal of Urology in 1953.

Obviously, this change in his work reflects the change in urology from its early focus on genitourinary disease to its present focus as a surgical specialty. Dr. Slotkin was named Clinical Professor of Urology Emeritus in 1954 by the University of Buffalo Medical School and continued his private practice until 1964. After retirement, he continued to write, contributing a fascinating chapter about the history of the Northeastern Section to History of Urology. It is a priceless, logical record of carefully researched facts.

His obituary notice implies that he may have been the first American invited to join the Canadian Urological Association. Dr. and Mrs. Slotkin did not have any children; his estate included a generous bequest to the Northeastern Section to provide funding for invited guest speakers at our annual meetings."

Narrow Band Imaging (NBI) visualized more bladder cancer than WLI*

Now, there is an even more powerful way to visualize bladder cancer than traditional WLI. NBI is a patented Olympus visualization technology clinically proven to help physicians see up to 28% more Carcinoma In Situ (CIS). Just push the NBI button — it’s that simple. Call 1-800-848-9024 or visit SimplySeeMore.com to learn more about NBI.

*Narrow Band Imaging (NBI) visualized more bladder cancer than White Light Imaging (WLI) in clinical studies. Based on a weighted average, studies have shown that using NBI allows physicians to visualize lesion boundaries. NBI is not intended to replace histopathological sampling as a means of diagnosis. © 2016 Olympus America Inc. ACCREDITATION INFORMATION

Accreditation: This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the American Urological Association Education and Research, Inc. (AUAER) (hereafter “AUA”) and Northeastern Section of AUA (NSAUA). The AUA is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation: The American Urological Association designates this live activity for a maximum of 17.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Evidence-Based Content: It is the policy of the AUA to ensure that the content contained in this CME activity is valid, fair, balanced, scientifically rigorous and free of commercial bias.

AUA Disclosure Policy: All persons in a position to control the content of an educational activity (i.e., activity planners, presenters, authors) participating in an educational activity provided by the AUA are required to disclose to the provider any relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest. The AUA must determine if the individual’s relationships may influence the educational content and resolve any conflicts of interest prior to the commencement of the educational activity. The intent of this disclosure is not to prevent individuals with relevant financial relationships from participating, but rather to provide learners information with which they can make their own judgments.

Resolution of Identified Conflict of Interest: All disclosures will be reviewed by the program/course directors or editors for identification of conflicts of interest. Peer reviewers, working with the program directors and/or editors, will document the mechanism(s) for management and resolution of the conflict of interest and final approval of the activity will be documented prior to implementation. Any of the mechanisms below can/will be used to resolve conflict of interest:

• Peer review for valid, evidence-based content of all materials associated with an educational activity by the course/program director, editor, and/or Education Content Review Committee or its subgroup.
• Limit content to evidence with no recommendations
• Introduction of a debate format with an unbiased moderator (point-counterpoint)
• Inclusion of moderated panel discussion
• Publication of a parallel or rebuttal article for an article that is felt to be biased
• Limit equipment representatives to providing logistics and operation support only in procedural demonstrations
• Divestiture of the relationship by faculty

Off-label or Unapproved Use of Drugs or Devices: It is the policy of the AUA to require the disclosure of all references to off-label or unapproved uses of drugs or devices prior to the presentation of educational content. The audience is advised that this continuing medical education activity may contain reference(s) to off-label or unapproved uses of drugs or devices. Please consult the prescribing information for full disclosure of approved uses.

Disclaimer: The opinions and recommendations expressed by faculty, authors and other experts whose input is included in this program are their own and do not necessarily represent the viewpoint of the AUA or NSAUA.

Consent to Use of Photographic Images: Registration and attendance at or participation in NSAUA meetings and other activities constitutes an agreement by the registrant to the AUA’s use and distribution (both now and in the future) of the registrant or attendee’s image or voice in photographs, videotapes, electronic reproductions and audiotapes of such events and activities.

Audio, Video and Photographic Equipment: The use of audio, video and other photographic recording equipment by attendees is prohibited inside NSAUA meeting rooms.

Reproduction Permission: Reproduction of written materials developed for this NSAUA course is prohibited without the written permission from individual authors and the American Urological Association.

Special Assistance/Dietary Needs: The Northeastern Section complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act §12112(a). If any participant is in need of special assistance or has any dietary restrictions, please see the registration desk.

Target Audience: The primary target audiences are AUA and Northeastern Section members, urology residents, urology sub-specialty fellows, and other members of the urologic care team.

Course Description: The 2016 Annual Meeting of the Northeastern Section will provide attendees with current updates on various urologic conditions and treatments including Urologic Cancers, Pediatrics, Geriatrics, Reconstruction, Stone Disease and Quality Measures. This year’s program provides diverse learning formats including plenary lectures, educational forums and debates, and moderated poster sessions presented by many of the AUA’s experts. These different learning formats will allow attendees opportunities to improve their knowledge gaps and potentially change their practice patterns.

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of the 2016 NSAUA Annual Meeting, participants should be able to:

• Review quality measurement and quality of care in the Canadian and the American health care system.
• Recognize quality measurement and how to utilize it in the practice of Urology.
• Assess the unique nature and management of urinary symptoms in elderly patients.
• Recognize the challenges associated with treatment of GU cancers in the geriatric population.
• Interpret the role of novel pharmaceutical for the management of voiding dysfunction.
• Identify the utility of newer tissue ablation techniques for treatment of BPH.
• Review the evidence-based guidelines for the management of urethral strictures.
• Diagnose and manage the complications of urethral mesh erosion.
• Assess the clinical utility of various genomic biomarkers for prostate cancer management.
• Identify the role of minimally invasive surgery and active monitoring of small renal masses.
• Recognize the opportunities and controversies in the treatment of male hypogonadism.
• Identify the efficacy of novel agents for the treatment of erectile dysfunction.
• Identify the optimal candidates for Active Surveillance protocol in low risk prostate cancer.
• Interpret the efficacy and outcomes of HIFU therapy for prostate cancer.

GERALD ANDRIOLE, MD
Dr. Gerald L. Andriole, Jr. is the Robert K. Royce Distinguished Professor and Chief of Urologic Surgery at Barnes-Jewish Hospital, The Siteman Cancer Center and Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis, Missouri. Dr. Andriole received his medical degree from Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He trained in surgery at Strong Memorial Hospital and the University of Rochester and completed urology residency at Brigham and Women's Hospital and Harvard Medical School. Subsequently, he was a fellow in Urologic Oncology at the National Cancer Institute in Bethesda, Maryland. Dr. Andriole has over 30 years of consistent contributions in the areas of BPH and prostate cancer screening and prevention research. He has contributed well over 350 peer-reviewed publications and serves on the editorial boards of several prestigious journals. He is Chairman of the Prostate Committee of the National Cancer Institute's Prostate, Lung, Colorectal and Ovarian (PLCO) Cancer Screening Trial and PI of the NIDDK Multidisciplinary Approach to Urologic Pelvic Pain (MAPP) and Symptoms of Lower Urinary Tract Dysfunction Research Network (LURN). He was Chairman of the Steering Committee of the REDUCE Prostate Cancer Prevention Trial as well as PI of the NIDDK Medical Therapy of Prostatic Symptoms (MTOPS) BPH trial and of the NIDDK Complementary and Alternative Medicine for Urinary Symptoms (CAMUS) study. He is a member of the American Urological Association, American Association for Cancer Research, the American Society of Clinical Oncology, American Surgical Association, the American Association of Genitourinary Surgeons and the Clinical Society of Genitourinary Surgeons, among other societies.

ANANIAS C. DIOKNO, MD
Dr. Ananias C. Diokno is currently serving as Professor of Urology at Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine and attending staff at Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, Michigan. He received his MD degree at the University of Santo Tomas in Manila, urology residency and neuro-urology fellowship at the University of Michigan (UM) under Jack Lapides, MD and served as a faculty member at UM for 14 years, achieving the rank of Professor. He was then appointed and served as Chair of the Department of Urology at Beaumont Hospital for 23 years. Dr. Diokno was tapped to become the Executive Vice President and Chief Medical Officer of Beaumont Health, a position that he held for seven years before his retirement from that position in 2013. He has conducted NIH funded research projects continuously for 33 years, receiving the NIH MERIT award for his productivity. He has received many awards including an AUA Presidential citation and the Victor Politano Award. Dr. Diokno served as President of the Michigan Urological Society, the North Central Section of the AUA, the Philippine-American Urological Society, The Reed M. Nesbit Society and the Geriatric Urological Society. He has also published over 250 papers and chapters and three books.

WILLIAM F. GEE, MD, FACS
Dr. William F. Gee is Clinical Professor of Surgery (Urology), Voluntary Faculty at the University of Kentucky College of Medicine and Emeritus Urologist at Commonwealth Urology, Lexington, Kentucky. He has spent much of his career training University of Kentucky PGY-4 urology residents during their six-month rotation with private practice urologists at St. Joseph Hospital. He received his medical degree from the University of Wisconsin in Madison and did his urology residency in Seattle at the University of Washington, which included a year as an NIH Senior Research Fellow. Additionally, Dr. Gee served two years on active duty as a medical officer in the United States Naval Reserve, which included service in Vietnam.

From 2005 to 2009, Dr. Gee was AUA Treasurer and a member of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors. He has held numerous leadership positions, including President and Secretary-treasurer of the American Association of Clinical Urologists, and President of both the AUA’s Southeastern Section and the Kentucky Urological Association. Dr. Gee represented the AUA as a delegate to the AMA House of Delegates prior to becoming AUA President-elect. In addition, he served as AUA representative to the "RUC" (AMA Relative Value Update Committee) for over 15 years; the RUC determines the Relative Values for the Medicare Fee Schedule. Over the years, Dr. Gee has served on numerous AUA committees, including Urology Core Curriculum, Investment, and Future of Urology Residency Training Task Force. He has also been Chair of the AUA Health Policy Council and has testified before Congress on urology issues. Dr. Gee has received several AUA awards, including the AUA Distinguished Service Award and the AUA Presidential Citation. He has been a member of the AUA since 1980, and was awarded Honorary AUA Membership in 2011.
CHRISTOPHER M. GONZALEZ, MD, MBA, FACS

Dr. Chris M. Gonzalez is a native of Toledo, Ohio. He graduated from Denison University in Granville, Ohio with a BS degree in 1989. Afterwards, he obtained his MD degree from the University of Iowa College of Medicine in Iowa City, Iowa. Dr. Gonzalez then completed both his general surgical and urologic residency training at the McGaw Medical Center, Northwestern University in Chicago, Illinois. He completed his MBA degree from the Northwestern Kellogg School of Management in 2006. Dr. Gonzalez was named the Director of the University Hospitals Urology Institute and the Lester Persky Professor and Chairman of Urology at Case Western Reserve University in September 2015.

He is the Associate Editor for the Genitourinary Reconstruction Section of Urology and section editor for the “Hands On” section of Urology Times. He has served on the Board of Directors for the Genitourinary Reconstructive Surgery Society, and he was a member of the first International Consultation on Urologic Stricture Disease. Dr. Gonzalez is a current member of the Urethral Stricture guidelines panel for the AUA.

Dr. Gonzalez currently serves as the AUA Vice Chair for Public Policy. Previous to this position, he served as Vice Chairman of the AUA Quality Improvement and Patient Safety Committee. He is a former AUA Gallagher Health Care Policy Scholar and was a member of the second AUA Leadership program class. Dr. Gonzalez has served on the AUA BPH Guidelines Committee, AUA expert panel to the AMA RUC and the ABU/AUA Examination Committee. He was also the President of the Chicago Urological Society.

Dr. Gonzalez has published over 130 peer reviewed manuscripts, review articles, invited editorials and book chapters. He has had funded research in the past with an NIH pilot project in the area of prostate cancer screening in underserved populations, and an ambulatory care process improvement award from the Grant Healthcare Foundation. His recent research focus has been on patient reported outcome measures in the area of genitourinary reconstruction, practice patterns in reconstructive urologic surgery, lean management applications in ambulatory health care, and the physician workforce shortage in the United States. His areas of clinical specialty include urethral stricture disease, failed hypospadias salvage, fistula disease, erectile dysfunction, penile prosthetic placement, Peyronie’s disease and penile curvature correction.

MOHIT KHERA, MD, MBA, MPH

Dr. Mohit Khera, earned his undergraduate degree at Vanderbilt University. He subsequently earned his master’s degree in Business Administration and his master’s degree in Public Health from Boston University. He received his medical degree from The University of Texas Medical School at San Antonio and completed his residency training in the Scott Department of Urology at Baylor College of Medicine. After finishing a six-year residency in Urology, he completed a one-year fellowship in Male Reproductive Medicine and Surgery with Dr. Larry I. Lipshultz.

Currently an Associate Professor in the Scott Department of Urology at Baylor College of Medicine, he specializes in Male Infertility and Male and Female Sexual Dysfunction. He also serves as the Director of the Laboratory for Andrology Research at Baylor College of Medicine. He was recently appointed as the Medical Director for Baylor College of Medicine’s Executive Health Program.

Dr. Khera is an enthusiastic investigator in the laboratory. In 2006 he was awarded the American Urological Association and Pfizer Scholars Grant to study erectile dysfunction; in 2007 he was awarded an Auxilium Pharmaceutical Grant to study testosterone replacement therapy for prostate cancer patients, and in 2008 he was awarded an Allergan grant to study the effects of botulinum toxin in treating Peyronie’s disease. These studies continue, and in 2012 Dr. Khera was awarded one of two national grants to study sexual dysfunction in men taking finasteride. Also in 2012, he patented a new delivery system for testosterone, and currently, his laboratory is studying stem cells to treat sexual dysfunction.

He is a widely published writer, having co-authored book chapters including those for the acclaimed Campbell-Walsh Urology textbook, for Clinical Gynecology, and for the fourth edition of Infertility in the Male edited by Lipshultz, Howards and Niederberger. He also co-edited the third and most recent edition of the popular book Urology and the Primary Care Practitioner. In 2014, he published his second book Recoupling: A Couple’s 4 Step Guide to Greater Intimacy and Better Sex. Dr. Khera has published over 60 articles in scientific journals and has given over 120 lectures throughout the world on testosterone replacement therapy and sexual dysfunction.

Dr. Khera currently serves as an active member in the Sexual Medicine Society of North America and the American Society of Andrology. In 2014, he became Associate Editor of the Journal of Sexual Medicine. He currently serves on the AUA Examination Committee and Sexual Dysfunction Guidelines Committee. He teaches courses on low testosterone and sexual dysfunction for the AUA locally and internationally.

Dr. Khera freely shares his time and knowledge with the general public. He has been voted one of Houston’s Best Doctors by Health and Sport Fitness magazine and is a frequent guest on such TV programs as Fox News’ “Ask the Doctor.” He also writes a blog on Men’s Health for the Houston Chronicle newspaper.
SUPRIYA MOHILE, MD, MS
Dr. Supriya Mohile is a board-certified geriatrician and oncologist. Dr. Mohile has developed a clinical and research program in geriatric oncology by strengthening the links between geriatrics and oncology. She completed internship, residency and fellowships in hematology/oncology and geriatrics at University of Chicago Medical Center, where she also earned a master’s degree in health outcomes research. Mohile’s fellowship was funded by an American Society of Clinical Oncology and John Hartford Foundation initiative to train oncologists in the care of the elderly. Mohile’s research interests include the evaluation of patterns of care, health outcomes and quality of life related to treatment for systemic cancer in older patients. In 2013, she was awarded a Patient Centered Outcomes Research Institute Award and a NCI R01 to evaluate whether geriatric assessment can improve outcomes of older patients with cancer. She directs the Specialized Oncology Care & Research in the Elderly (SOCARE) geriatric oncology clinic at the University of Rochester/Highland Hospital and is an integral member of the University of Rochester National Community Oncology Research Program (NCORP) Research Base which is directed by Dr. Gary Morrow. She leads the Cancer Care Delivery Research (CCDR) efforts in the Research Base and is a member of the NCI’s CCDR Coordinating Committee. Dr. Mohile is an expert in geriatric oncology with over 100 publications in this area. She serves on the editorial board of the Journal of Clinical Oncology and is Deputy Editor of the Journal of Geriatric Oncology. She also serves on the American Society of Clinical Oncology Geriatric Oncology Special Interest Group and Clinical Guidelines committees.

DIANE NEWMAN, DNP, ANP-BC, FAAN
Dr. Diane K. Newman, is Adjunct Professor of Urology in Surgery and Research Investigator Senior at the Perelman School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania. She also serves as Co-Director of the Penn Center for Continence and Pelvic Health, Division of Urology at the University of Pennsylvania Medical Center. Dr Newman has over 30 years’ experience practicing as a urology nurse, since 2000, in the Division of Urology at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. Her current practice involves the evaluation, treatment and management of urinary incontinence and related problems including the use of catheters and other devices in the management of bladder dysfunction. Dr. Newman has held multiple leadership positions in professional groups and government-sponsored expert panels over the last decade. She’s been quoted frequently as an incontinence expert in top-tier media outlets like The New York Times, and has co-authored many notable books and medical publications on the topic. She is the author of the books, The Urinary Incontinence Sourcebook, Managing and Treating Urinary Incontinence (1st and 2nd editions), Overcoming Overactive Bladder and a coauthor of Fast Facts: Bladder Disorders. She is the lead editor of the Society of Urologic Nurses and Associates Core Curriculum for Urologic Nursing, currently planned for publication in 2016. She is the lead editor of Clinical Application of Urologic Catheters, Devices and Products to be published in 2016. She is the Principal Investigator of three NIH studies on prevention and treatment of urinary incontinence, Co-investigator of PCORI and VA funded grants on prostate cancer.
EDWARD M. MESSING, MD

George E. Slotkin Lecturer

Dr. Edward M. Messing is the Winfield W. Scott Professor and Chairman, Department of Urology, Professor of Oncology and Pathology at the University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry, a position he has held for over 21 years, following 14 years as Professor of Surgery and Human Oncology, and Chief of Urologic Oncology at the University of Wisconsin Medical School.

He has been President of the Northeastern Section of the AUA and of the Society of Urologic Oncology (SUO), co-leader of the GU Committee of the Eastern Cooperative Oncology Group (ECOG) and is currently co-leader of the Renal Cancer Subcommittee of the Southwest Oncology Group (SWOG). In 2013, he was awarded the prestigious Presidential Citation from the American Urological Association for his work on bladder cancer research and urologic education.

Dr. Messing, a busy clinician and surgeon, strongly believes research is an integral part of the practice of medicine and is necessary to provide patients with the best possible care. His research interests range from basic science and translational investigations into the molecular underpinnings of cancers of the bladder, kidney and prostate, to carrying out large scale studies on screening for, preventing and treating these cancers. He is a strong believer in the value of clinical trials to guide patient management. Among the numerous clinical trials he has designed and conducted, included are those of adjuvant therapies for node positive prostate cancer after prostatectomy for resected, locally extensive renal cancer and for non-muscle invasive bladder cancer after surgical resection.

Genomic Health, Inc. is the world’s leading provider of genomic-based diagnostic tests that address both the overtreatment and optimal treatment of cancer, one of the greatest issues in healthcare today. The Oncotype DX Prostate Cancer Test — measures the aggressiveness of prostate cancer and may help scores of men choose between immediate treatment or active surveillance. The Oncotype DX prostate cancer test measures the level of expression of 17 genes across four biological pathways to predict prostate cancer aggressiveness. The test results are reported as a Genomic Prostate Score (GPS) that ranges from 0 to 100 and is combined with other clinical factors to further clarify a man’s risk prior to treatment intervention. Oncotype DX GPS strongly predicts disease aggressiveness, offering information beyond currently available clinical factors, such as PSA and biopsy Gleason Score, to help physicians and patients confidently choose the most appropriate treatment based on an individualized risk assessment. The test has been validated to guide treatment decisions with the prostate needle biopsy sample — meaning low-risk patients could avoid invasive treatments such as surgery or radiation. The company is based in Redwood City, California, with international headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland.
